Jessica, MS-CCC SLP

Jessica Bossolina is a licensed speech-language pathologist who received her masters of science in Speech-Language Pathology from Loyola University in 2002. She also holds a bachelor's of arts degree in Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology from Loyola University. She has worked in an acute care rehabilitation hospital for adults and children with Traumatic Brain Injury and an acute care hospital working with individuals with severe swallowing problems, ventilator dependency, speech/language and voice disorders. Jessica has been working with children including birth-high school ages in a variety of settings. She has been evaluating children as the lead therapist on the preschool team. Currently, Jessica provides early intervention services in and around the Raleigh North Carolina area, including Raleigh, Cary, Apex, Holly Springs and Fuqua-Varina.

Jessica has worked with a variety of diagnoses including, but not limited to, the following:

- Auditory Processing Disorder
- Autism Spectrum Disorders
- Cerebral Palsy
- Developmental Delay
- Down Syndrome
- Fetal Alcohol Syndrome
- Hearing Impairments
- Motor Speech Disorders
- Neurological Disorders
- Phonological Disorders
- Prematurity
- Sensory Integration
- Traumatic Brain Injury

Jessica educates and assists the family to find the resources needed to allow their child to succeed. She is an energetic, patient therapist who believes that each child must be given the opportunity to develop to his/her fullest communicative potential. Jessica looks at the child as a whole and incorporates all areas of development to promote functional speech and language skills..
