She completed a Master's level grant specializing in speech and language services for children with severe and profound disabilities. Upon graduation she worked in acute care and outpatient settings treating adults and children with speech/language, swallowing, and voice disorders. She currently provides early intervention services in and around Western North Carolina.

Lauren has worked with a variety of diagnoses including, but not limited to, the following:

Auditory Processing Disorder	Developmental Delay	Phonological Disorders
Cerebral Palsy	Hearing Impairments	Prematurity
Down Syndrome	Motor Speech Disorders	Sensory Integration
	Neurological Disorders	Traumatic Brain Injury

Continuing Education/Experience/In-Services:

Lauren educates and assists the family to find the resources needed to allow their child to succeed. She is an energetic, patient therapist who believes that each child must be given the opportunity to develop to his/her fullest communicative potential. Lauren looks at the child as a whole and incorporates all areas of development to promote functional speech and language skills.
