Priscilla, PT, DPT

Priscilla is a licensed physical therapist who received her doctorate in physical therapy from Texas Tech University Health Science Center in May of 2020. In 2019, she completed an 8-week internship at an outpatient pediatric clinic designed to use equine therapy along with physical therapy in order to improve neuromotor, sensory, and cognitive systems. There she worked with a wide range of children ranging from 1-18 years old. January of 2020, Priscilla moved from Texas to Raleigh, NC to pursue her career as a physical therapist in the pediatric setting. She is excited to provide Early Intervention care to Wake County and the surrounding areas.

Priscilla has worked with a variety of diagnoses including, but not limited to, the following:

Brachial Plexus Injury	Down Syndrome	Hypotonia/Hypertonia	Sensory Integration
Cerebral Palsy	Ehlers-Danlos Syndrome	Neurological Disorders	Traumatic Brain Injury
Cognitive Delay	Genetic Disorders	Orthopedic Issues	Visual/Hearing
Developmental Delay	Hydrocephalus	Seizures	Impairments

Continuing Education/Experience/In-Services:

- Strategic Mindfulness Training for Stress Management
- Top 10 roadblocks to Natural Development
- ICU outcome measures in-service
- Perme in-service
- Trained with clinical instructor and provided multiple in-services on various Kinesio Taping techniques
- In-school experiences with serial casting and Ready Bodies Learning Minds

Priscilla is a compassionate and caring physical therapist who believes in working as a team with family and other healthcare providers to create and execute the best-individualized plan of care for each child and their family. She works hard to build an open and trusting communication between family and healthcare providers in order to better meet the child and family's goals.
